

A CLASS OF RANDOM OPERATORS WITH CONTINUOUS
SPECTRA

Alexander Gordon

University of North Carolina at Charlotte

We consider a lattice Schrödinger operator whose potential v is an infinite sum of periodic functions v_k with periods growing in k . Within an elementary cell of v_k , the points where it differs from 0 are chosen at random. We find new sufficient conditions guaranteeing that the spectrum of the operator is continuous with probability 1.